

Air Sanitizer & Duct Scrubber Facts

According to the EPA, indoor air pollution is among the top five U.S. health risks.

According to Total Health and Better Health Magazines, one out of six people who suffer from allergies do so because of the direct relationship to fungi and bacteria in air duct systems.

According to American Lung Association, air ducts have more germs than a chicken coop.

According to American Lung Association & EPA, most people spend 60 to 90 percent of their time indoors.

According to ASHRAE, most commercially available fiberglass furnace filters are less than 7% efficient.